PKHNMM/NOTICE/SEM 6/COURSE FEE/2025/48

Notice

This is to inform all Semester-6 students that the Career Development Fee is an integral component of the overall course fee of the college, as per the resolution unanimously adopted by the Governing Body and officially acknowledged by the Higher Education Department of the West Bengal Government.

This charge is implemented for career guidance, skill enhancement training sessions, and job placement support for graduating students.

Every student must settle any outstanding payments related to the total college course fee prior to filling out forms for the university examination, regardless of their choice to participate in the career development programme or not.
