Monthly News Bulletin of Purash Kanpur Haridas Nandi Mahavidyalaya

April 2026

Welcome to the latest edition of our E-Bulletin, where we highlight the dynamic activities and accomplishments of our college under the aegis of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). As we continue to foster a culture of excellence and continuous improvement, this publication serves as a testament to our collective efforts in enhancing the quality of education and institutional performance.

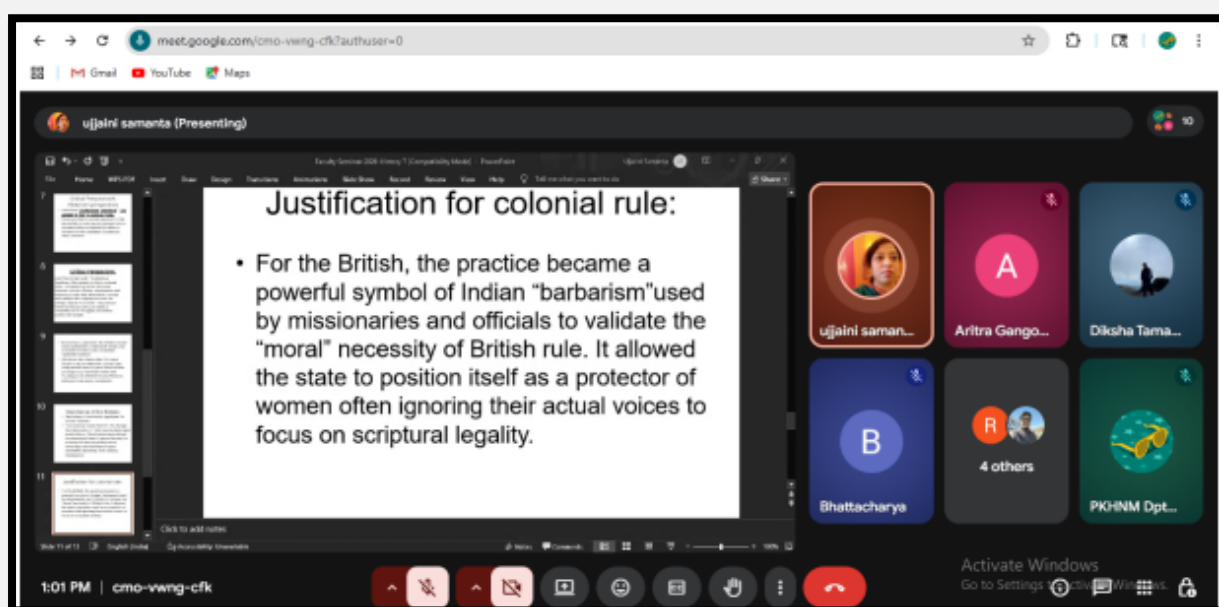

Educational Tour to Gangtok: Department of Geography

The Department of Geography organized an educational tour to Gangtok from 6th April to 11th April 2026 with the aim of providing students with practical exposure to the geographical, environmental, and socio-cultural characteristics of the Himalayan region. The tour was conducted under the guidance and supervision of the faculty members (3) of the department, with enthusiastic participation from the Semester VI students (15). During the field visit, students closely observed various physical and human geographical features and environmental conservation measures. They also conducted primary surveys to assess and understand the socio-economic conditions of the local inhabitants. The educational excursion offered valuable field-based learning experiences, enabling students to connect theoretical knowledge with real-life geographical observations.

Faculty Seminar: Department of History

The Department of History organized a Faculty Seminar on the topic “Gender Debates in Colonial India” on 8th April 2026 at 12 noon in online mode. The seminar was delivered by Dr. Ujjaini Samanta Roy, who presented an insightful and academically enriching discussion on the various dimensions of gender issues and debates during the colonial period in India. Faculty members and students (10) attended the seminar with keen interest and actively participated in the interactive discussion session that followed the lecture. The seminar provided valuable academic exposure and encouraged critical thinking on issues related to gender, history, and society.

Start-Up Legal and Ethical Steps: Institution’s Innovation Council

The Institution’s Innovation Council of Purash Kanpur Haridas Nandi Mahavidyalaya, under the aegis of IQAC, organized a Special Lecture on the topic “Start-Up Legal and Ethical Steps” on 27th April 2026 at 12:00 PM through online mode. The lecture was delivered by Prof. Binod Kumar Shaw, who shared valuable insights into the legal procedures, ethical responsibilities, and regulatory frameworks associated with establishing and managing start-up ventures. During the session, the speaker discussed various important aspects related to entrepreneurship, including business registration procedures, intellectual property rights, legal compliance, taxation, ethical business practices, and corporate responsibility. The lecture also emphasized the importance of maintaining transparency, accountability, and professional ethics in entrepreneurial activities. The programme successfully created awareness regarding the legal and ethical dimensions of start-up culture and encouraged students to develop innovative ideas with a responsible and sustainable approach.
