Monthly News Bulletin of Purash Kanpur Haridas Nandi Mahavidyalaya

August 2025

Welcome to the latest edition of our E-Bulletin, where we highlight the dynamic activities and accomplishments of our college under the aegis of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). As we continue to foster a culture of excellence and continuous improvement, this publication serves as a testament to our collective efforts in enhancing the quality of education and institutional performance.

International Sanskrit Day, 2025

International Sanskrit Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm on 5th August, 2025 at 12 noon in Room No. 23 of our institution. The programme was organized to highlight the significance of Sanskrit, the mother of Indian languages, and to create awareness about its rich literary and cultural heritage. The event was graced by the presence of the Hon'ble Speaker, Dr. Sushanta Kumar Bag, Assistant Professor & Head of the Department of Sanskrit, Maharani Kasiswari College. Dr. Bag delivered an enlightening lecture on the relevance of Sanskrit in the modern world. He emphasized the philosophical depth, linguistic beauty, and scientific value embedded in Sanskrit texts. He also encouraged the students to take pride in this ancient language and explore its vast treasure of knowledge. The session witnessed active participation from students and faculty members, who engaged in interactive discussions and shared their views on promoting Sanskrit studies. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to Dr. Bag for his inspiring words and to all participants for making the event a success.

Training Programme of NTS by Aidni Infotech

A Training Programme for Non-Teaching Staff (NTS) was organized by AIDNI INFOTECH on 5th August, 2025 at 1:00 p.m. in the IQAC Room of the institution. The programme aimed at enhancing the efficiency, professional skills, and overall awareness of the non-teaching staff in order to strengthen the smooth functioning of administrative and academic activities. The session covered important aspects such as office management, record keeping, use of digital tools, communication skills, and maintaining a supportive work environment.

Celebration of Rakhi Bandhan Utsav

The Rakhi Bandhan Utsav was joyfully celebrated on 8th August, 2025 in our institution. The programme was organized to uphold the values of love, protection, and harmony that the festival of Raksha Bandhan symbolizes. On this occasion, students tied Rakhi to one another as a mark of respect, affection, and mutual responsibility. Teachers and staff members also participated, emphasizing the spirit of unity and fraternity beyond the bounds of religion and community. The celebration created an atmosphere of warmth and togetherness, inspiring everyone to strengthen the bonds of friendship and harmony within the institution.

Observation of Independence Day

Independence Day was observed with great patriotic fervor in our college premises. The celebration began with the hoisting of the National Flag followed by the singing of the National Anthem. A special feature of this year's celebration was the tree plantation programme conducted in collaboration with the local Police Station. The officers planted saplings in the college premises as a step towards environmental conservation and sustainable development. Their active participation added inspiration and meaning to the day's observance. The observation of Independence Day thus became a memorable occasion, combining patriotism with social responsibility.

Special lecture on 'স্বাধীনতা, দেশপ্রেম ও রবীন্দ্রনাথ ঠাকুর'

A webinar on 'স্বাধীনতা, দেশপ্রেম ও রবীন্দ্রনাথ ঠাকুর' was organized by Department of History on 24th August, 2025 at 12:30 p.m. The programme was graced by the esteemed speaker, Dr. Amrita Ghoshal, Assistant Professor (WBES), Department of Bengali, Bethune College. In her insightful address, Dr. Ghoshal beautifully illustrated Rabindranath Tagore's views on freedom and nationalism, emphasizing his unique vision of universal humanism that transcended narrow boundaries of patriotism. She highlighted the poet's role in inspiring the spirit of independence through his writings, songs, and social philosophy. The interactive session that followed reflected the audience's keen interest in understanding the relevance of Tagore's ideas in the present socio-political context. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to Dr. Ghoshal for her enlightening talk and to all participants for making the event meaningful and successful.

Admission and Orientation of Semester I Students for the Session 2025–26

The admission process for the Semester I students of the academic session 2025–2026 at Purash Kanpur Haridas nandi Mahavidyalaya was successfully conducted as per the guidelines of the Higher Education Department, West Bengal. The admission procedure was carried out in a smooth and transparent manner, ensuring strict adherence to merit lists, reservation policies, and all prescribed regulations.

Following the completion of the admission process, an Orientation Programme was organized in the College at Room No 13 on 29th August, 2025 at 11.30am. The programme was graced by the presence of the Teacher-In-Charge, faculty members, non-teaching staff, and the newly admitted students. Dr. Tapabrata Bhaduri, Teacher-In-Charge, in his inaugural address, welcomed the freshers to the college and highlighted the glorious heritage, academic excellence, and values upheld by the institution. He also emphasized the importance of discipline, sincerity, and active participation in both academic and extracurricular activities. Subsequently, the Heads of various departments introduced their subjects and briefed the students about the curriculum, evaluation system, CCF structure, examination schedule, and academic calendar in the departmental room. The Orientation Programme successfully acquainted the students with the academic and cultural environment of the college and provided them with the necessary guidance to begin their undergraduate studies with enthusiasm and confidence.
